

spiti tigri

discover our charming house located in the heart of liapades, a picturesque village in corfu. just a short walk from the stunning rovinia and limni beaches, our newly renovated home is ready to welcome its first full season in 2024. immerse yourself in the village's historic ambiance while enjoying modern comforts. nearby, you'll find inviting tavernas, convenient supermarkets, and cozy cafes, creating a perfect blend of tranquility and convenience. whether you're longing for beachside relaxation or a taste of local culture, our liapades house offers it all. experience the allure of old-world corfu with a touch of contemporary luxury - your unforgettable getaway starts right here.

situated just 50 meters from the village square, you'll find yourself at the heart of liapades, immersed in its vibrant culture and traditions. whether you're strolling through charming streets, sampling local delicacies, or interacting with friendly villagers, the spirit of community is ever-present.

